

FPCC Press Release 5.20.14

Congratulations to the graduating class of 2014! Each of the 46 graduates serve as an example of how hard work and commitment translate into personal and academic success. We wish the graduating class and their families the best of luck, as each will enter a new chapter of professional development and into their respective career path. FPCC is proud to be part of the process.

Preceding the graduation ceremony was the annual FPCC Graduation Pow-wow / Wacipi held last Friday at the Wolf Point High School Gymnasium. Dancers were out in full force as contest dancing included: Adult Women and Men Teen 13 to 19 Girls and Boys, Junior girls and boys, Tiny Tots, and the Potato Dance. Drums included the Host drum Soldier Hill and Tatanka Oyate. The FPCC Blue Stone Indian Club and Culture Committee are grateful for the contributions of volunteers and community members for making our cultural celebration a successful one.

