

AIHEC Student Conference

FPCC will be sending a delegation of students to the annual AIHEC Student Conference to be held in Minneapolis, MN on March 14-16. Students will be competing in both individual and team academic competitions such as:

- Knowledge Bowl
- Business Bowl
- Handgame
- Science Bowl
- Webpage Design
- TCJ Writing Competition

JOB ANNOUNCEMENTS

Wellness Coach

Full-time position with benefits

Closes March 4, 2016

Environmental/Biomedical Science Instructor

Full-time position with benefits

Open until filled

Adult Basic Education Instructor

Part-time position

Open until filled

Contact Michelle Day for applications and more information at 406-768-6315

POETRY CONTEST

All Reservation Poetry Contest sponsored by James E. Shanley Tribal Library and Poplar Schools seventh grade English class. There will be six categories. Each poem should be original for a general audience. There will be drop boxes at James E. Shanley Tribal Library and Poplar Middle School.

One typed entry per person, per category. Please include your name, category, age and contact information on your entry. You may use the Library to type up your entry.

The Contest will run from February 1 - 29, 2016. Winners will be honored at a gathering at the Library where they will be asked to read their poem. Winning poems will be included in a booklet.

Any questions, contact Lorna Henze at 768-5549.

Contact

Rika Dozier
RevUp Work Force Navigator
406-768-6331
rdozier@fpcc.edu

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

The new TRIO Student Support Services Program and what benefits you are likely to receive if you apply. An Academic Advocate and a Student Success Advocate will work directly with students to make sure there are on track to graduate. Program participants will be exposed to cultural events, financial assistance, academic support, and general counseling. The SSS program is open to most Pell Eligible students and/or first generation students. Please call the TRIO Student Support Services program for more information [406] 768 6346.

FPCC ROUND DANCE

The FPCC cultural committee and co-sponsor WPCO are hosting a round dance on March 4th, 2016 at the Wolf Point Community Center. The event is an alcohol and drug free event and open to the public.