Fort Peck Community College determined that the HEERF emergency funds will be distributed to Title IV eligible, undergraduate, degree-seeking students based upon current enrollment as of April 27, 2020. The amount awarded to students is as follows:

Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the emergency financial aid grants. A letter accompanied the check that was delivered to students indicating the following:

The HEERF fund provided money to institutions for emergency financial aid grants to college students whose lives have been disrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic, many of whom are facing financial challenges and struggling to make ends meet. The emergency funds must be used to cover expenses such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and childcare.

As you were an FPC student when the COVID pandemic began, you are eligible to receive an emergency aid grant. By endorsing the enclosed check, you are acknowledging you will use the funds to cover the allowable expenditures listed above. Students who receive funding from their institutions are not required to record or track how it is spent.
