

Looking for Youth Leaders

Apply Today for the Gathering of Native Youth Leaders & the Creator's Games Camp

June 20 thru the 24th, 2016

Sponsored by: Fort Peck Community College, Native American Women's Alliance, Montana Behavioral Initiative, Fort Peck Tribes, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs

Looking for students who would like the opportunity to become positive assets in their tribal communities. During this week participants will receive leadership trainings, participate in a great schedule of cultural activities and enjoy opportunities to serve.

Eligible students include:

- High School sophomores, juniors, and seniors
- Incoming College freshman
- Have an interest in serving their tribal communities

Students who are selected for the cohort and who fully participate throughout the week will receive a stipend.

This is a unique opportunity to build your capacity to make a difference in your community. For more information email Jarett Medicine Elk at medicine.elk@gmail.com or call Courage Crawford at 406-768-8371.

Must submit a short autobiography and statement of why they want to attend the training.